

Changing Places - Transfer Your Skills!

Reflection Sheet

After completing the Changing Places -Transfer Your Skills! exercise, answer the following questions with your group.

Why are the Essential Skills transferable from job to job and sector to sector?

Do you think that some Essential Skills are more important for some jobs than others?
Why/why not?

Can you think of a job that would not use all of the Essential Skills?

- If so, what is it, and why would this job not require all of the Essential Skills?

After answering the questions above with your group, answer the following question on your own.

How do you think that developing your Essential Skills can help you in your own career path?
